DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY 2019

We are very grateful to welcome Counsellor Obaida Ahmmed who is attending Mass at SS Peter and Paul this Sunday as an act of solidarity with us after the terrible attack on those attending Mass last Sunday in Sri Lanka. As Pope Francis reminded us when he visited Morocco in March "Fanaticism and extremism must be countered by solidarity on the part of all believers, grounded in the lofty shared values that inspire our actions."

A peaceful act of Solidarity organised by Interfaith Wolverhampton, will take place on Wednesday 1st May 2019 at 11.30am on the piazza in front of the Civic Centre. It would be great if as many of us as possible could be there to pray and support this generous act. Unfortunately, I will be conducting Mary Metcalfe's funeral at that time.

Divine Mercy Devotions with Adoration and Confessions this Sunday at St Michael's at 3.00pm. An opportunity to pray for all your loved ones and our brothers and sisters who lost their lives in the terrible terrorist attack in Sri Lanka last Sunday.

Fr Mark and Fr Gary wish to thank everyone for your kind Easter Offerings. May God bless you and your families in the Easter Season.
