Thirty Second Sunday in Ordinary Time (year B)

The Archdiocese hearing in the Independent Inquiry into Child Sexual Abuse (IICSA) begins in London on Monday 12th November, and runs until Friday 16th November.

The Archdiocese believes that the work being done by IICSA is of great significance and supports the aim of strengthening and improving safeguarding practices and cultures within the Church. The welfare of children, young people and vulnerable adults is a fundamental priority for the Archdiocese. Fostering a culture which has safeguarding at its very heart remains a key part of our work. If you would like to speak to someone about safeguarding and the Church's work, please call 0121 230 6240. If you would like to speak to someone independent of the Church you can contact the NSPCC on 0808 800 5000.

Please pray with us for all victims of abuse, and for all those involved in the work of this important Inquiry. Last weekend's Pastoral Letter on this matter can be found on the Archdiocese website <https://www.birminghamdiocese.org.uk>

SS Peter and Paul's Readers and Eucharistic Ministers because of the shape of our church we often have embarrassing moments when no one knows if anyone is going to read or help with Holy communion. If it is your turn, please arrive well before Mass to let Simon know you are there. Also at Communion, do not wait to bow in formation with the others. Go straight up to the sanctuary and bow on your own before taking your place. Many thanks.

Catholic Trivia Last week's answer: The Amice is the white cloth a priest wears around his neck at Mass. While donning the amice, he first drapes it over his head (as with a hood), then lowers it to his neck, tying it around his torso. During this action he prays a short prayer asking God to clothe him with the "helmet of salvation".(Ephesians 6:17)

This week's Question: What are the 5 commandments of the Church?
